

I'd Like To Hear That Song Again

WORDS BY GENE JEFFERSON

MUSIC BY BOB IRVING.

LYRIC MALE QUARTETTE

STAR EDITION
HARRY H. SPARKS MUSIC PUBLISHER
TORONTO CANADA

16/6/64
EDWARD JOHNSON
MUSIC LIBRARY

50

I'd Like to Hear That Song Again.

Words by GENE JEFFERSON.

Music by BOB IRVING.

mf rit.

1. A - far from home and kin dred an a - ged dar - key lay, 'Mid
2. The nurse spoke to the sing - er, and soon the sweet re - frain That stran - gers he was dy - ing and soon would pass a - way, And cheered the poor old dar - key, rang loud and clear a - gain, And as to scenes of child - hood his thoughts be gan to roam, Some thongh his heart was hap - py, his eyes with tears were bright, As

rit. tempo.
bod - y start - ed sing - ing "My old Ken - tuck - y Home." He bro - ken - ly he mur - mured "Ken - tuck - y home, good night." He lis - tened till 'twas end - ed, then, as a nurse passed by, He sank back on the pill - low, and bend - ing o'er the bed, The called her to his bed-side, And mur-mured with a sigh: "I'd kind nurse sought to aid him, But as she raised his head, She like to ask one fa-vor-'twould drive a way my pain, Please, knew that he was dy-ing, and as he passed a-way, She

Miss, go ask the sing-er, To sing that song a gain.
saw his lips were mov-ing, And heard him soft-ly say:

Andante. Retrain.

I'd like to hear that song a-gain, "My Old Kentucky Home," For I was born in ole Kentuck'lar's whar I used to roam! I've heard the songs of man-y years, On land and on the foam, But I love that song of "My Old Kentucky Home, of my Old Kentucky home, far a-way."....

